Why does Jesus tell a story about two builders?

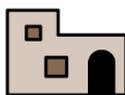

Bible

There is a Bible story that Jesus told.
It is called the wise and foolish builders.

Jesus told this story to help people understand how to live in a safe and steady way.

Jesus

In the story, two people build houses.

houses

One house is built on rock.
One house is built on sand.

sand

rock

big storm comes, with rain, wind, and water.

storm

In this story, the house, the rock, the sand and storm are meant to be about people's lives.

feel

The house is a picture of a person's life and how they feel inside.

rock

The rock is a picture of things that are solid, true, and dependable.

The Rock means things that help a person feel safe, calm, and supported.

Rock does not move easily.

The sand is a picture of things that are not steady or reliable.
Sand can shift and move.

sand

Sand represents things that make a person feel unsafe, unsteady or unsupported.

unsafe

The storm is a picture of hard times.

Storms can mean worries, changes, big feelings, confusion, or difficult days.

storm

troubles

troubles

Everyone has storms sometimes, even people who love Jesus.

rock

When the storm comes, the house on the rock stays standing.

sand

When the storm comes, the house on the sand fell down.

Jesus

This story can help me think about my own rock.

think

My rock can be my concrete truths, like:

- People who care about me.
- Things that help my body feel calm.
- Clear rules that keep me safe.
- Knowing I am loved by Jesus.

think

I can also think about my sand.

unsafe

Sand might be things that make me feel unsafe, overwhelmed, or confused.

unhelpful

Sand can be things I choose to do that are not helping me follow Jesus.

Jesus

love

rock

love is my rock, I can feel safer during my storms.

learning

ok

Put my life on things that help me feel secure.
Learning takes time, and that is okay.
